

Invest in Yourself

Invest in your needs.

Many association professionals value professional development programs. Others want to enjoy camaraderie with peers. Whatever your need, there's something in the ISAE membership experience that is designed for you.

- Annual Convention & Golf Outing
- Members-only roundtable discussion forums
- Seminars and luncheons
- Certified Association Executive Exam study sessions
- Synergy, our monthly newsletter
- STAR Awards program
- Membership directory exclusive to ISAE members
- Government affairs directory
- Lobbying efforts

ISAE membership is an investment in your career

ISAE membership is an investment in your career

ISAE
7150 Winton Drive, Suite 300
Indianapolis, IN 46268
Phone: 317-328-4569
Fax: 317-280-8527
Email: info@isae.org

Invest in Yourself

Invest in Yourself

What is ISAE?

The Indiana Society of Association Executives (ISAE) exists to support and strengthen association professionals' success. We provide the state's leading educational and networking events designed specifically for the needs of association executives & support staff.

ISAE membership

is an investment in your career

Who Belongs to ISAE?

Our members provide professional leadership to Indiana's outstanding associations and nonprofits. These organizations include a broad variety of professions, industries, societies, and charitable or social organizations. Collectively, they represent hundreds of thousands of members throughout the state, country and world.

We invite you to learn more about the Indiana Society of Association Executives, why ISAE is leading association professionals to greater success every day, and why you should Invest in Yourself.

How Do You Join ISAE?

Log on to www.isae.org and visit the membership section to download an application.
Email staff at info@isae.org.
Call us at (317) 328-4569

“ Last year, I submitted [a philanthropic] program for a STAR Award...and it won! It means a lot to both me and our association that our peers chose our program as one of the best in Indiana ”

Courtney Young, Executive Director,
Air Conditioning Contractors of America-
Central Indiana Chapter

Why Should You Invest in Yourself?

Save time and money by depending on ISAE Staff, members, and the members-only section of our web site for support, answers and guidance.

Learn from association veterans and hear their stories of success and challenges.

Access potential members and partners through our membership directory, available only to ISAE members.

Form partnerships with others who share your vision; compliment your membership products & services; lower your costs; and improve your membership benefits.

Learn the trends from the experts through our professional development programs. Our seminars, luncheons, roundtables and convention feature some of the profession's most recognized experts, with programming to fit individual needs.

Gain CAE distinction with the support of ISAE's peer study groups and through our programs & seminars, all modeled around ASAE's domains of knowledge.

Receive recognition as the "best of the best" of association programs and individuals through ISAE's STAR Awards.

Monitor legislation that affects the conditions and standards under which associations and nonprofit organizations operate through the united voice of ISAE.

Enjoy the camaraderie of your peers by networking with members of YOUR association at our numerous events.

Receive exclusive communication via our informative emails, monthly newsletter, and web site to keep you in-touch and ahead of the curve.

Get involved by joining a task force or committee and help develop new approaches for your association.

“ At a recent ISAE meeting, I lamented to an ISAE member that I was looking for financial or tax related speakers for my fall regional meeting. That member relayed in amazement that one of his staff members' yearly goals is to have more of their association's members speak to groups throughout the state on those subjects. ”

Curtis Rostad, Executive Director,
Indiana Funeral Directors Association

“ Thank you so much for the [speaker] suggestions. I know you can relate to that panicky feeling when a speaker bails at the last minute. I have a new appreciation for our ISAE membership! ”

Emilie Perkins, Director of Training & Special Events, Indiana Association of Homes & Services for the Aging

STRENGTH

SUPPORT

SUCCESS